VOLUME XI

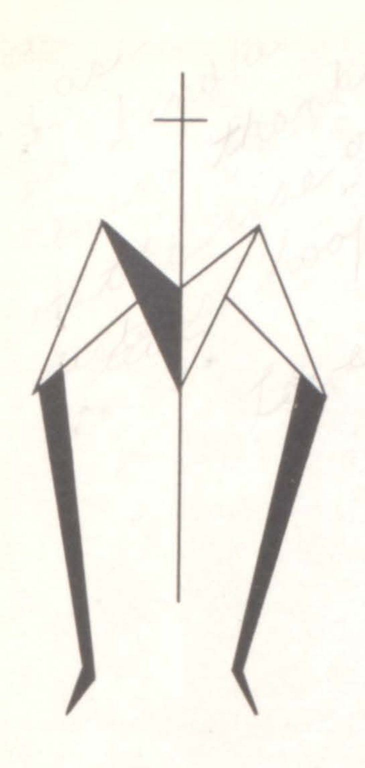

THE CADEMY of NOTRE DAME

DEDICATION

Around the world the Blessed Virgin Mary has achieved honor and love under many different roles. Man has benefited and will benefit from her intercessions under some of the especially loved titles of Our Lady of the Snows, Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Lourdes. Recognizing the great love due her as the Immaculate Conception, she has been designated as Patroness of the United States in view of this title. Through our years at the Academy, we, too, have grown to love her more intimately. As teen-age girls, we are learning to cope with some of the same hopes and joys, fears and crises that confronted her, though in a different manner, with an understanding and sympathy; with a tranquility anchored in the Source of Truth and Joy.

To you, Mary, our Mother,—to you, our Model in seeking Truth and in finding Joy, we dedicate this volume of The Academy, with our gratitude, love, and a prayer for true loyalty to you, always.

OUR BISHOP

The Senior Class
Notre Dame Academy
Belleville, Illinois

Dear Graduates:

You have reached another plateau in your Catholic education journey. It is one which gives you particular joy and a feeling of satisfaction of work well done.

For us who have been instrumental in providing this education, it is an occasion on which we offer to you our sincerest congratulations. We join these with our prayers that the training, discipline and inspiration you have received during these four years at Notre Dame will be the guiding light to lead you further on the road of Christian living.

Granting to you my episcopal blessing, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Albert R. Zuroweste

ACADEMICS

MRS. VEECH — English I and II, Physical Education
SISTER MARIE SUZANNE — Homeroom C205, Religion, English I and II, Sodality Moderator.
MRS. KATT — English II and III.
SISTER RITA MARIE — Homeroom C120, English III and IV, Read-A-Wee Business Staff Moderator.
SISTER M. LORITA — Homeroom 110, English IV, Latin II, Read-A-Wee Staff Moderator.
SISTER JANE MARIE — Homeroom C102, English III, Speech and Dramatics, Yearbook Staff Moderator.
MRS. MONGAN — English I, Latin.

ENGLISH

Mary Cole, Susie Read, and LaDonna Klueker direct Terri Cange in posting current news regarding English Literature.

Theme writing provides English students with sound college preparation.

"Oh where is 'Green 14'?" says Pat Schaefer to Jackie Savage and Jean Sarto.

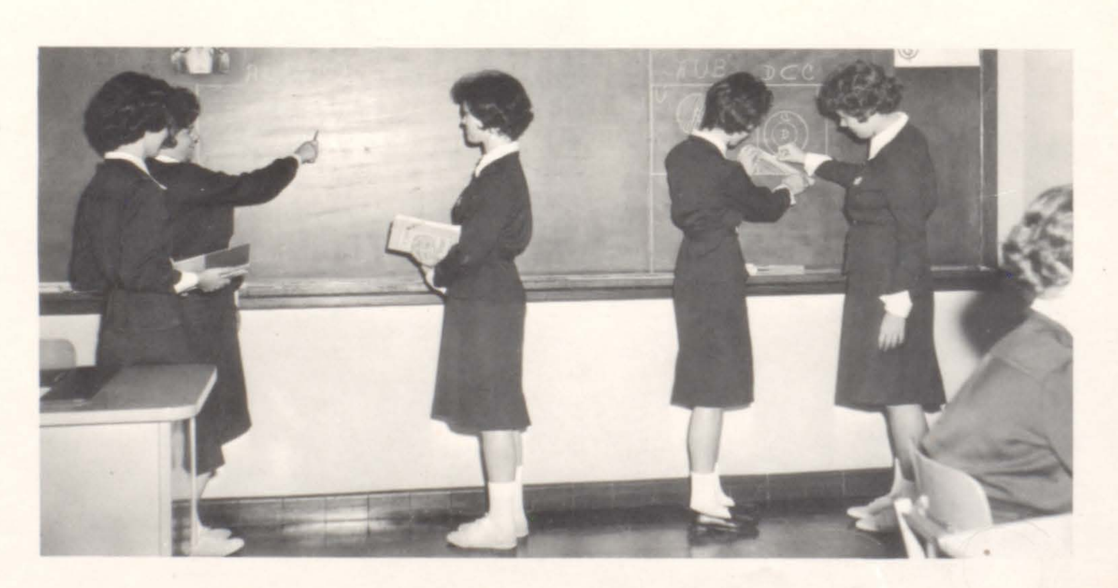

Senior English students Annabelle O'Malley, Cece Cullen, and Ruth Ann Cole re-enact the popular scene from Macbeth . . . "Double, double, toil and trouble, fire burn, cauldron bubble."

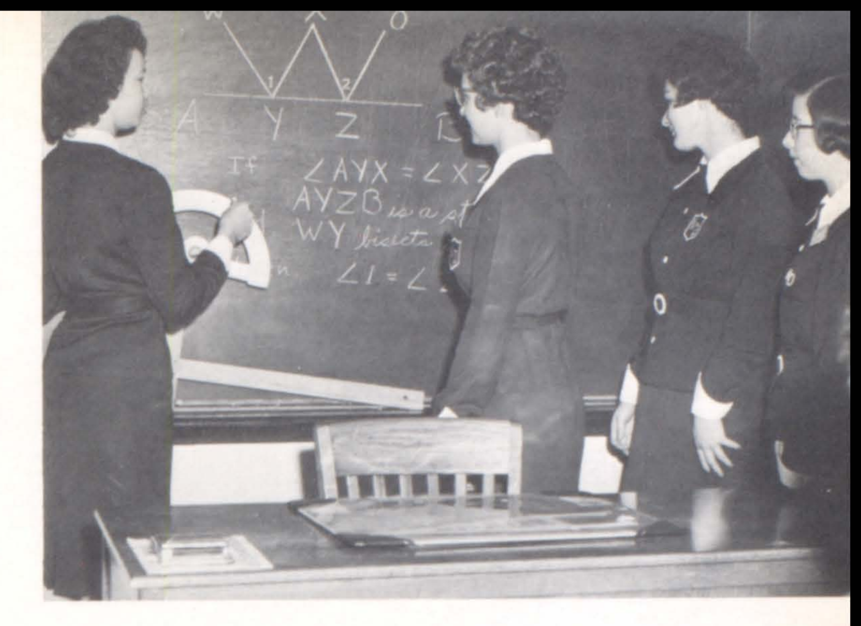

MISS CLARK — Homeroom C101, Physical Education, Health, General Mathematics.
SISTER PATRICK ANN — Homeroom 309, Algebra I and II, General Science, Biology.
MISS SOUCY — Homeroom C1, Geometry, Physical Education.
SISTER CONRAN — Homeroom 109, Advanced Mathematics, Algebra I.

MATHEMATICS

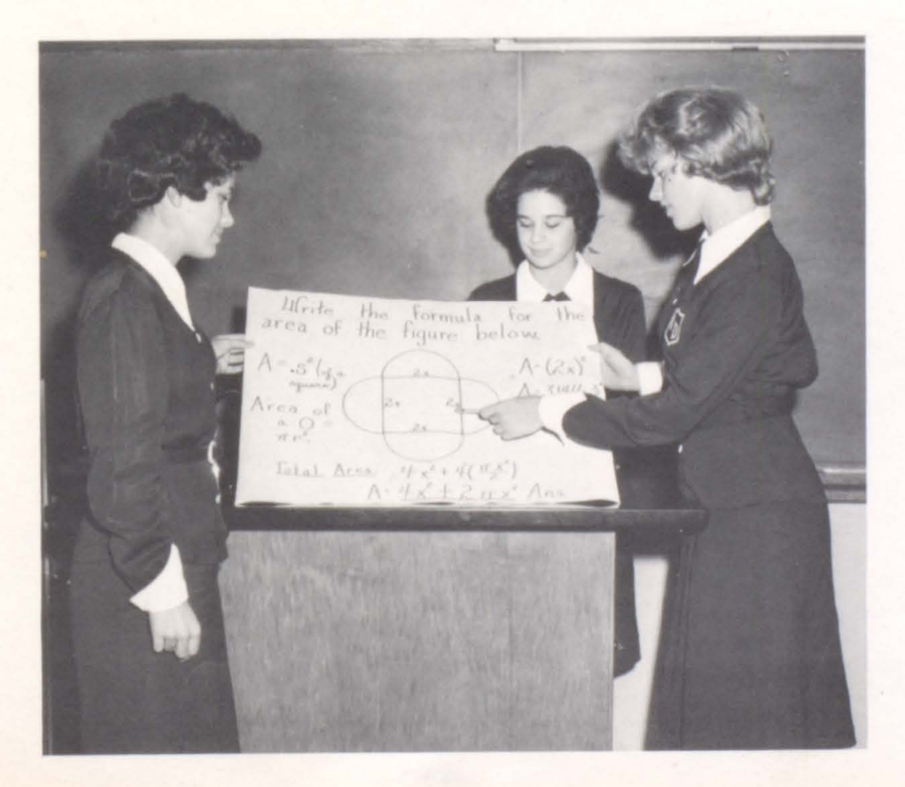

The set concept proves a challenge for these senior Advanced Mathematics students.

Geometry provides the basis for an orderly pattern of thought.

Contemplating a difficult Algebra problem is this pencil-chewing Freshman.

These Freshmen find the explorations of Algebra intriguing.

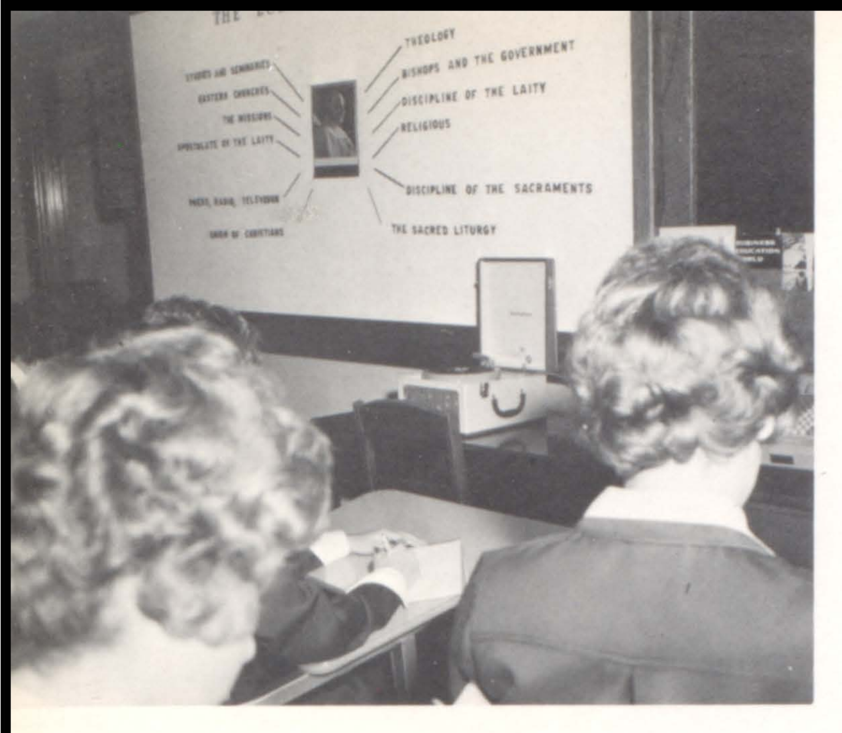

SISTER CAROL MARIE--Sophomore Homeroom, Chemistry, Biology, and Future Nurses of America moderator.
SISTER GERALD--Sophomore Homeroom, Biology, Physics, C.S.M.S. and Rosary Club moderator.
SISTER M. CORITA--Freshman Homeroom, Chemistry, Algebra, Geometry, C.S.M.C. and Rosary Club assistant moderator.

SCIENCE AND

Exploring the fascinating world of living cells are: Sharon Schaefer, Jan Cox, Eileen Morrison, Linda Kassebaum, Marilyn Niemann, and Barbara Lyvers.

Through the religion classes the students were made aware of the impact of the Ecumenical Council in their lives.

"When looking for a marriage partner," warns Father Wesselman, "look for compatibility."

RELIGION

Add a little more, Mary Ellen, then maybe it will balance.

Sister Angelee, sole art and French teacher, looks on as Sister Baptiste, Latin III teacher, points out another English phrase derived from the Latin. Sister Angelee and Sister Baptiste both manage sophomore homerooms. Sister Marie Ruth teaches four classes of Latin I, besides managing a freshman homeroom.

LANGUAGES

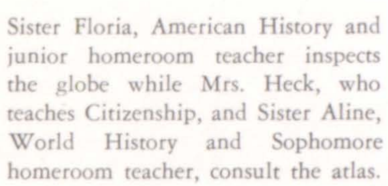

These juniors, who found the study of French easier after two years of Latin, learn the correct French pronunciation from a tape-recording.

First-year Latin students become acquainted with "Auxilium Latinum," a national magazine written entirely in Latin on the high school level.

Sister Floria, American History and junior homeroom teacher inspects the globe while Mrs. Heck, who teaches Citizenship, and Sister Aline, World History and Sophomore homeroom teacher, consult the atlas.

Miss Peggy Driscoll, American Problem, American History teacher and Sophomore homeroom moderator.

SOCIAL STUDIES

These American History students become adept in locating places on the globe and map.

Barbara Fellner captures the attention of her listeners while reporting on one of the current problems of modern America in her American Problems class.

Notre Dame's three devoted business teachers, Sister M. Justin, Sister John de Deo, Sister Rosella, pause from their work to discuss the award systems for shorthand and typing students.
SISTER M. JUSTIN — Senior Homeroom, Shorthand II, Typing I and II, Bookkeeping, Student Council Moderator. SISTER JOHN DE DEO — Junior Homeroom, Typing I, Shorthand I, Record Keeping, Read-A-Wee Business Staff Moderator, Assistant Moderator of Student Council. SISTER M. ROSELLA — Junior Homeroom, Typing I, Shorthand I, General Business.

SPEED is the by-word for all second year shorthand students as they strive for the coveted 120 words a minute award.

BUSINESS

"Well, there goes my perfect timed writing," laments aspiring typist, Martha Vernier, as the wrong key is struck. Accuracy as well as speed make up the capable typist.

Doris Warzala, Jane Quirin, Pat Breeden, Marilyn Lyons, Rita Joseph, ambitious business students, are conscientiously preparing to face the challenges of the business world by acquainting themselves with a wide diversity of office equipment. Familiarity with this equipment will give them confidence and poise in their future business experiences.

Engrossed in her artistic creation is Mary Lou Semmelroth, who is taking advantage of a course which will help her to develop the standards of taste and judgment needed for art appreciation.

Several students try sculpturing, a technique recently added to the art department.

ART, HOME ECONOMICS

Sister Ida Marie, Home Economics teacher, demonstrates one of the varied techniques of sewing to an interested pupil. She is also a senior homeroom teacher and is F.H.A. moderator.

Participants in the doll-dressing contest sponsored by the Junior Women's Club are Ercile Ferrenbach, Sharon Renneker, second place winner; Barbara Brown, first place; Mary Lehan. They participated in this project in conjunction with their Home Economics course.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Our devoted principal, Sister Mary Carmel, contacts the students over the public address system.

My dear Students,

Angels call her Queen, but they cannot call her Mother. You can. Appropriately have you dedicated this year's volume to Mother Mary. Your country, your locality, your school, your teachers similarly honor her—the oldest promise of Heaven to Earth.

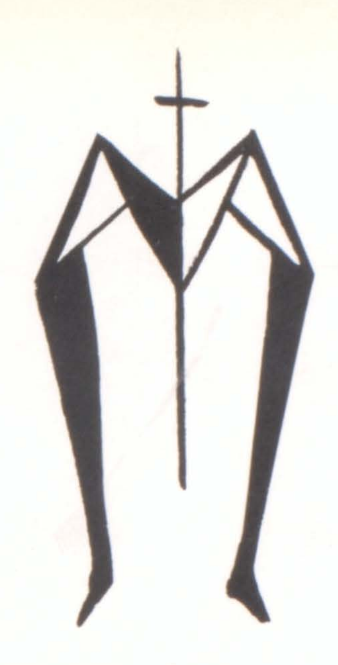

It was in Eden that God made this covenant; on Calvary that He fulfilled it. And scattered all over the world down through the ages, various shrines of Our Lady are reminders of the frequent renewals she has made of that promise to her children, God's children.

All the days of your life give yourself more and more to Mary, knowing that in giving yourself to her, you are giving yourself to her divine Son. Make yours a Marian existence. With the sincere confidence and devotion of a child for its mother, daily go to her in need and temptation, in joy and sorrow, in success and failure. Mary is the most competent teacher in the school of life, the surest guide on the path to Eternal Life, the greatest exemplar of growth into the likeness of Christ.

Nationally, locally, domestically, you may not rate in Time, but Marian-steered you will shine for all Eternity.

Lovingly in Notre Dame,

Sister Mary Carmel, S.S.N.D.

ACTIVITIES

AD JESUM PER MARIAM

THE SODALITY has for its motto: ad Jesum per Mariam—to Jesus through Mary. Thus, the school chapel is the focal point in the Sodalists's daily activities. Many times will a Sodalist visit the chapel before beginning her day of classes. She spends fifteen minutes each week in prayerful adoration before God's altar. Many times will she turn to her chosen model, the Blessed Virgin Mary, in time of need. As the Sodalist steps from the circle of high school life into the ever-widening realm of careers and opportunities, may she ever remain a faithful imitator of Mary, the protectress of all.

Mary Kay Gaul, sophomore Sodalist, places a white rose at the feet of our Blessed Lady. The Sodality has traditionally presented a living rosary in the Month of the Rosary, October.

Each week, preceding their Sodality meetings, the Sodalists assemble in the chapel to recite the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

These four senior Sodalists, Katie Nuetzel, Ruth Ann Cole, Donna Schneider, and Margie Thompson, accompanied by the Sodality moderator, Sister Angelee, journeyed to the Summer School of Catholic Action, a national convention attended by more than three thousand Sodalists. The convention, held in Chicago, gave the girls one week of renowned speakers, dances, boat rides, and, most important of all, an opportunity to meet fellow Sodalists from every part of the country.

The Sodality moderators: Sister Marie Suzanne, sophomores; Sister Marie Ruth, probationary group; Sister Angelee, over-all moderator, including juniors and seniors. The officers of the 180-member Sodality are: Annabelle O'Malley, Treasurer; Janet Walthes, Secretary; Judy Pawlow, Vice-Prefect; Margie Thompson, Prefect.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Executive Board members Nancy Moran, Mary Crilly, Kay Trentman, Jackie Faller, and Pat Schomber discuss plans for the Student Directory with Sister John de Deo.

Hall Duty

Senior Council members Joan Roth, Eileen Hayes, Marilyn McKinney, Mary Kay Kohl, Gertie Gagen, Janet Walthes, Judy Lurtz, and Clara Mae Munier organize stuffed animals to be used as awards in various drives.

Juniors Janet Bedel, Dolores Dressel, Jane Swedo, Mary Kay Meyer, Diane Morck, Peggy Ferris, and Marilyn Schranz check programs for Mary N. D. skit.

Freshmen Shirley Rettle, Rita Winkelmann, Janice Vlasak, Cynthia Hess, Carla Waeltz, and Karen Burns gather material for the coming Magazine Drive.

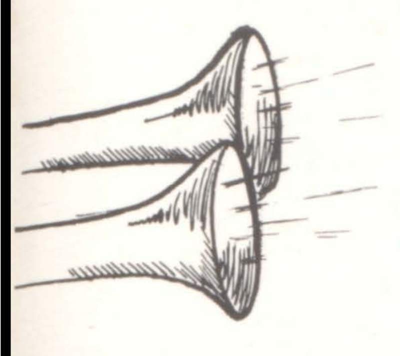

Those chosen for the honor of representing their homerooms as Mary N. D. candidates are, first row: Sharon Meyer, Donna Schneider, Karen Rowe, Mary N. D.; Margie Thompson, Kathleen Burns. Second Row: Jane Koesterer, Carol Knaus, Elaine O'Leary, Linda Kassebaum, Katie Crostarosa. Third Row: Mary Beth Mueller, Mary Wuest, Kathy Lanter, Susan Hladick, Kathy Knepper, Judy Gain. Fourth Row: Betsy Boyer, Kathy Howard, Jane Pazderka, Julie Davis, Martha Glauber, Mary Ann Shadid.

Karen Rowe, elected by the student body, Mary N. D. 1963, truly represents the Mary-like qualities of honesty, sincerity, loyalty, purity, and the ability to get along with others. Not only is Karen a regular participant in the many activities sponsored by the school, but is also active in various local organizations. She is our idea of the ideal Notre Dame girl.

"Ave Maria" was the theme that prevailed in the selection of Mary N. D.

CATHOLIC STUDENTS MISSION CRUSADE

Our Mission Queen:
Is she a winner?

Officers of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade are: Bonnie Beardsmore, Vice President; Terry Schill, President; Ann Gaumond, Secretary; and Peggy Hayes, Treasurer.

C.S.M.C. members who attended the convention at Notre Dame University include: Sister Aline, Bonnie Beardsmore, Clariece Ritzheimer, Ann Yoch, Terri Schill, Dee Dressel, Sister Corita, Sister Gerald, Jean Wainwright, Ann Gaumond, Mary Ellen Dingerson, Elaine Powell, Teresa Hoffman, Marcia Arnold, Sister Marie Patrick, Judy Wasser, Peggy Hayes, Sandra Long, Mary Ellen Fisher, Bonnie Wright, Kay Elliot, Mary Kay Meyer, Margaret Waite, Miss Driscoll, Patti Beis, Mary Goalby, Judy Churchill, Ann Carroll, Kathy Lanter, Margie Arnold, Kathy Stocker, Carol Dingivan, Cecelia Nugent, Annabelle O'Malley, Pat Breeden, Sheila Cooney, Lynn Abright, Corrie Abright, Phyllis Zaganelli, Ann Miller, Peggy Ferris, Claude Bernier, Kathy Jalogeas, and Debbie Weider.

One of the many activities of the C.S.M.C. is the distribution of Thanksgiving Baskets. Here Freshmen: Carol Murphy, Janet Graul, Kathy Biehl, Joanne Karabaic, Lynn Forcade, get ready to deliver their baskets.

Notre Dame's top speakers review their criticism sheets which all seemed to favor "excellent" in their particular case. Winners in the speech contest were, seated: Judy Pawlow, Cindy Becherer, Jean Wainwright. Standing: Janice Schneider, Mary Lou Cichon, Carol Wobbe, Lynn Halvachs. Missing from photo is Barbara Oughton who merited a "superior" award.

Enjoying a breath of air following a performance of "Around the World in Eighty Days" are these N. D. actresses: Jeanette Dahm, Terry Schill, Diane Costarosa, Carol Wobbe, Lynn Halvachs, Margie Haas, Carol Sedlak, Susan Roche, Cindy Becherer, Kathy Boyne. The production was presented for the N. D. Postulants.

SPEECH

Highlighting the Christmas variety show were fifteen acts performed by the talent of N. D. Humorous skits — picture to left — and dance routines — below — were part of the entertainment.

As an appropriate closing to the Christmas presentation, a pageant was presented to instill in all students a true spirit of Christmas.

Everyone loves a minstrel and a lively freshman music class proved it by presenting their version of a minstrel show. It included such famous characters as Mr. Interlocuter and the hilarious Endmen. Songs, dances, and jokes highlighted the production.

One of the features of the minstrel was the presentation of an interpretative dance by talented freshman, Linda Reiniger.

Last-minute directions are given to these Juniors of 308 before they present their one-act play. Their presentation, "Nothing to Destroy," merited first in the Junior-Senior division. Members of the cast are: Elaine O'Leary, Anita Kassly, Dotty Dillon, Jean Sarto, Mary Ellen Ehret and Joan Waeltz.

The senior portraits receive an unanimous vote of approval from Rita Reuss, Kay Trentmann, Margie Thompson, Peggy Sax, Carol Wobbe, and Sandy Shields.

YEARBOOK

THE ACADEMY Staff of '63 expresses a "thank you" to all who have assisted us in the publication of this yearbook.

We deeply appreciate the co-operation given by our principal and by the faculty.

We are grateful to our advertisers, business directory boosters, and patrons for without their support this publication would not have been possible.

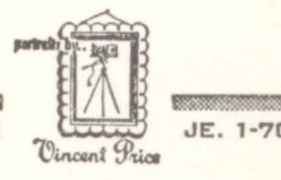

A special "thanks" goes to the photographers of the Vincent Price studio for their unhesitant effort to capture the students zeal in pictures and to every girl of the Academy who has been caught in the delectable act of being herself.

THANK YOU

Donna Schneider - Editor; Nan Moran - Co-Editor; Peggy Sax - Photography Manager; Carol Wobbe - Business Manager; Sandy Shields - Art Manager; Margie Thompson, Kay Trentman.
